INFORMATION ABOUT OUR USE OF COOKIES

Our website uses cookies to distinguish you from other users of our website. This helps us to provide you with a good experience when you browse our website and also allows us to improve our website.

By continuing to browse the website, you are agreeing to our use of cookies.

A cookie is a small file of letters and numbers that we store on your browser or the hard drive of your computer if you agree.   Cookies contain information that is transferred to your computer's hard drive.

We use the following cookies:

● Strictly necessary cookies. These are cookies that are required for the operation of our website. They include, for example, cookies that enable you to log into the secure areas of our website or purchase prize draw entries.

● Analytical/performance cookies. They allow us to recognise and count the number of visitors and to see how visitors move around our website when they are using it. This helps us to improve the way our website works, for example, by ensuring that users are finding what they are looking for easily.

On revisiting our website, we will therefore be able to obtain information about your previous visits and about your computer, including where available your IP address, operating system and browser type, for system administration and to report aggregate information to our advertisers. This is statistical data about our users' browsing actions and patterns. For the same reason, we may obtain information about your general internet usage.
